

I currently listen to Air1 on 107.3 in Lubbock, TX. Air1 has a wonderful impact on my life and it would be a great injustice for it to be taken off the air. It provides the local community with positive entertainment which is badly needed these days. Air1 is a great station and should not be taken away due to some people's definitions of what is right or better. Thank you.